8. SUBJECT-VERB AGREEMENT

Definition : Subject-Verb Agreement means the subject and the verb in a sentence must agree in number (singular or plural).

Rule : If the subject is singular, the verb is singular.
If the subject is plural, the verb is plural.

I. BASIC RULES

Rule	Explanation	Examples
1. Singular Subject → Singular Verb	When the subject is singular, the verb is singular.	- He plays cricket. - The girl is reading a book. - My brother goes to school.
2. Plural Subject → Plural Verb	When the subject is plural, the verb is plural.	- They play cricket. - The girls are reading books. - My brothers go to school.
3. Singular Subject with "-s, -es, -ies" → Singular Verb	A subject ending with -s, -es, -ies is singular.	- Ramesh writes a letter. - The bus arrives at 9 o'clock. - My pen is new.
4. Plural Subjects Connected by "and" → Plural Verb	When two or more subjects are joined by "and", the verb is plural.	- Ram and Shyam play football. - Bread and butter are my favourite food.
5. 'Either...or', 'Neither...nor' → Near Subject Decides	The verb agrees with the subject which is nearer to the verb.	- Either Ram or his friends is coming. - Neither the boys nor the girl is ready.

II. SPECIAL CASES

1. Everyone, Everybody, Someone, Somebody, Anyone, Anybody, No one, Nobody, Everything, Something, Anything, etc.	These words are singular.	- Everyone is invited. - Somebody has left his bag. - Nothing is impossible.
2. Many a / More than one / A number of + Noun	The verb is singular.	- Many a student has failed. - A number of students is absent.
3. None of + Plural Noun	The verb is singular.	None of the players is injured.
4. Some of / Most of / All of / Half of + Plural Noun	The verb is plural.	- Some of the students are intelligent. - Most of the apples are rotten. - All of the toys are new.
5. Either of / Neither of + Plural Noun	The verb is singular.	- Either of the books is interesting. - Neither of the answers is correct.
6. Each / Every	These words are singular.	- Each boy has his own pen. - Every student likes his teacher.

III. COMMON MISTAKES

- The team are playing well. X The team is playing well. ✓
 → My brother and I goes to school. X My brother and I go to school. ✓
 → None of the students are present. X None of the students is present. ✓
 → Either the boy or his friends are coming. X Either the boy or his friends is coming. ✓

IV. QUICK TIPS

- Find the real subject of the sentence.
- Check whether it is singular or plural.
- Use a singular verb with a singular subject.

9. ARTICLES

Definition : Articles are words that come before a noun. They show whether the noun is specific or general.

There are THREE Articles in English : A, An, The

I. A / AN (Indefinite Articles)

We use 'A' or 'An' before a singular countable noun when we talk about it for the first time or in a general sense.

Article	Used Before	Examples
A	a consonant sound (a, b, c, d, e, f...)	♦ a boy ♦ a university ♦ a pen ♦ a European country
An	a vowel sound (a, e, i, o, u)	♦ an apple ♦ an honest man ♦ an inkpot ♦ an hour

Rules :

- ✓ Use 'A' before consonant sound. (a boy, a dog)
- ✓ Use 'An' before vowel sound. (an apple, an elephant)
- ✓ The sound is important, not the spelling.
an hour (h is silent)
a university (u is pronounced 'you')

Examples in Sentences (A / An)

- ♦ I saw a cat in the garden.
- ♦ She is a doctor.
- ♦ He wants to become an engineer.
- ♦ An old man was sitting under the tree.
- ♦ This is a useful book.
- ♦ We need a pencil and an eraser.

When NOT to use A / AN

- ✗ Before plural nouns.
(Students are here.)
- ✗ Before uncountable nouns.
(Water is precious.)
- ✗ Before proper nouns.
(Rohit is my friend.)

II. THE (Definite Article)

We use 'The' before a noun when the noun is specific, particular or already known to the listener/reader.

	Used When	Examples
①	Refers to a specific noun. (known to both speaker & listener)	♦ Please close the door. ♦ The girl in red is my sister.
②	Refers to something already mentioned. (second time)	♦ I bought a book yesterday. ♦ The book is very interesting.
③	Refers to something unique. (only one in the world)	♦ The sun rises in the east. ♦ The earth is round.
④	Before superlatives & ordinal numbers.	♦ She is the best student. ♦ He came first in the race.
⑤	Before names of rivers, seas, oceans, mountain ranges, deserts, newspapers, musical instruments, etc.	♦ The Ganga, The Arabian Sea ♦ The Himalayas, The Sahara Desert ♦ The Times of India, The Guitar

Examples in Sentences (The)

- ♦ The sun is very bright.
- ♦ I like the movie we watched.
- ♦ The President of India visited our city.
- ♦ The rich should help the poor.
- ♦ He is the tallest boy in the class.
- ♦ I saw the Taj Mahal last year.

When NOT to use THE

- ✗ Before plural nouns in general sense.
(Dogs are loyal animals.)
- ✗ Before uncountable nouns in general sense.
(Honesty is the best policy.)
- ✗ Before names of meals, games, languages, days, months, etc.
(We have lunch at 1 pm.
He plays cricket. I speak English.)

III. SUMMARY COMPARISON TABLE

Article	Use	Before	Example

1. Both ... and	♦ Both you and I are responsible.
2. Either ... or	♦ Either you or your friend can go.
3. Neither ... nor	♦ Neither the teacher nor the students were present.
4. Not only ... but also	♦ Not only he but also his brother is intelligent.
5. Whether ... or	♦ Tell me whether you will come or not.

V. IMPORTANT TIPS

- ✓ Use conjunctions to join ideas and avoid short, choppy sentences.
- ✓ Do not use two conjunctions together unnecessarily. (wrong: and but, or but)
- ✓ Use a comma (,) before coordinating conjunctions when they join two independent clauses.

Example : I was tired, but I continued to study.

12. MODALS

Definition : Modals are helping verbs (auxiliary verbs) that are used with the base form of the main verb. They express ability, possibility, permission, obligation, advice, etc.

Uses : Modals are used to express different meanings such as ability, possibility, permission, obligation, advice, request, offer, etc.

Modal	Meaning / Use	Structure	Examples
1. Can	Ability, capability	Modal + base verb	♦ I can speak English. ♦ She can swim very well.
2. Could	Past ability, polite request, possibility	Modal + base verb	♦ I could ride a bicycle when I was 10. ♦ Could you please help me?
3. May	Permission, possibility	Modal + base verb	♦ You may go out. ♦ It may rain tomorrow.
4. Might	Possibility (less sure than 'may')	Modal + base verb	♦ It might rain tomorrow. ♦ He might be at home.
5. Shall	Suggestion, offer (I / we)	Shall + base verb	♦ Shall we go for a walk? ♦ I shall help you.
6. Should	Advice, suggestion, duty	Should + base verb	♦ You should study regularly, ♦ We should obey our parents.
7. Will	Future, promise, instant decision	Will + base verb	♦ I will call you later. ♦ It will be sunny tomorrow.
8. Would	Past habit, polite request, condition	Would + base verb	♦ He would go for a walk every evening. ♦ Would you like some tea?
9. Must	Strong obligation, necessity	Must + base verb	♦ You must wear a seat belt. ♦ We must protect nature.
10. Ought to	Advice, moral obligation, what is right	Ought to + base verb	♦ You ought to respect your elders. ♦ We ought to help the poor.

IMPORTANT NOTES

- * After modals, we always use the base form of the main verb. (I can play, not I can plays.)
- * Modals do not change their form with the subject. (He can, She can, They can)
- * Use 'not' after the modal to make negative sentences. (I cannot go. / She will not come.)
- * Use '?' after the modal to make question sentences. (Can you help me? / Will he come?)

EXTRA EXAMPLES

- ♦ You can trust him.
- ♦ We could not find the way.
- ♦ May I come in, sir?
- ♦ There might be a solution.
- ♦ Shall I open the window?
- ♦ You should see a doctor.
- ♦ I will finish my work tonight.
- ♦ She would like to join the team.
- ♦ You must be punctual.
- ♦ You ought to apologize for your mistake.

MODALS CAN ALSO BE USED FOR:

- Permission : May I use your pen?
- Request : Could you open the door?
- Offer : Shall I help you?
- Advice : You should take more rest.
- Obligation : We must obey the rules.
- Possibility : He might come tomorrow. 😊

POINTS TO REMEMBER

- ✓ Can → ability (present)
- ✓ Could → ability (past) / polite request
- ✓ May / Might → possibility
- ✓ Shall → suggestion (I / we)
- ✓ Should → advice
- ✓ Will → future
- ✓ Would → past habit / polite
- ✓ Must → strong necessity
- ✓ Ought to → moral duty / advice 😊

13. ACTIVE & PASSIVE VOICE

Definition : Active Voice - When the subject of the sentence performs the action.

Passive Voice - When the subject of the sentence receives the action.

Example : Active : Rohan writes a letter.

Passive : A letter is written by Rohan.

KEY POINTS

- In Active voice, the doer comes first.
- In Passive voice, the receiver comes first.
- We use 'by + doer' in Passive voice (doer can be omitted).

I. STRUCTURE

Tense	Active Voice (Structure)	Passive Voice (Structure)
Simple Present	S + V ¹ (s/es) + O	O + is/am/are + V ³ + by + S
Simple Past	S + V ² (ed) + O	O + was/were + V ³ + by + S
Simple Future	S + will/shall + V ¹ + O	O + will/shall + be + V ³ + by + S
Present Continuous	S + is/am/are + V ¹ (ing) + O	O + is/am/are + being + V ³ + by + S
Past Continuous	S + was/were + V ¹ (ing) + O	O + was/were + being + V ³ + by + S
Present Perfect	S + has/have + V ³ + O	O + has/have + been + V ³ + by + S
Past Perfect	S + had + V ³ + O	O + had + been + V ³ + by + S
Future Perfect	S + will have + V ³ + O	O + will have been + V ³ + by + S
Present Perfect Continuous	S + has/have + been + V ¹ (ing) + O	O + has/have been + being + V ³ + by + S
Past Perfect Continuous	S + had + been + V ¹ (ing) + O	O + had been + being + V ³ + by + S

II. EXAMPLES

Active Voice	Passive Voice
1. Riya writes a story.	A story is written by Riya.
2. Rahul ate an apple.	An apple was eaten by Rahul.
3. They will build a new school.	A new school will be built by them.
4. She is reading a book.	A book is being read by her.
5. We had finished the work.	The work had been finished by us.
6. You have solved the problem.	The problem has been solved by you.
7. The teacher explains the lesson.	The lesson is explained by the teacher.
8. They were playing football.	Football was being played by them.

III. RULES TO CHANGE (ACTIVE → PASSIVE)

1. Identify the Object (O) in the active sentence.
2. That object becomes the Subject in passive voice.
3. Use the correct form of 'to be' according to tense.
4. Change the main verb into its 3rd form (V³).
5. Add 'by + Subject (doer)' at the end.
(Omit if doer is not necessary)
6. If there is no object in the active sentence, it cannot be changed into passive voice.

Note : Some verbs (Reflexive, Intransitive verbs) do not have a passive form.
Examples : He came. / She is sitting, / I slept.

IV. HELPING VERBS (TO BE) FOR PASSIVE VOICE

Tense	Active Helping Verb	Passive Helping Verb (to be form)	Example (Passive)
Simple Present	-	is / am / are	A pen is used by me.
Simple Past	-	was / were	The cake was eaten by him.
Present Continuous	is / am / are	is / am / are being	The book is being read by her.
Past Continuous	was / were	was / were being	The match was being played by them.
Present Perfect	has / have	has / have been	The work has been done by us.
Past Perfect	had	had been	The letter had been written by Riya.
Future (Simple / Perfect)	will / shall will have	will / shall be will / shall have been	The project will be completed by them.
Modals (can, may, should...)	modal + V ¹	modal + be	The work should be finished by today.

QUICK TIPS

- ✓ Active voice is more direct and stronger.
- ✓ Passive voice is more polite and formal.
- ✓ Use passive voice when the doer is unknown, unimportant or obvious.

IMPORTANT REMEMBER

- * Always write the verb in 3rd form in passive voice.
- * 'By + doer' can be omitted if not required.
- * Read more passive sentences to understand better.

14. DIRECT & INDIRECT SPEECH

Definition : Direct Speech – The exact words spoken by the speaker are quoted.

Indirect Speech – The words of the speaker are reported/ conveyed by another person without using the exact words.

Example : Direct : Riya said, "I am reading a book."

Indirect : Riya said that she was reading a book.

KEY POINTS

- Direct speech uses quotation marks (" ").
- Indirect speech does not use quotations.
- In indirect speech, tense, pronouns, time, place and some words may change.
- The meaning of the sentence remains the same.

I. CHANGES IN INDIRECT SPEECH

No.	Part	Direct Speech	Indirect Speech
1.	Pronouns	I, we	he, she, I, they
2.		me, us	him, her, me, them
3.		my, our	his, her, my, their
4.		you, your	he / she, his / her
5.	Tense	Present Tense	Past Tense
6.		Past Tense	Past Perfect Tense
7.		Present Perfect Tense	Past Perfect Tense
8.		Past Perfect Tense	Past Perfect Tense (no change)
9.		Future Tense (will/shall)	would / should
10.	Time	Future going to	was / were going to
11.		now	then
12.		today	that day
13.		yesterday	the day before / previous day
14.		tomorrow	the next day / following day
15.	Place	next week / month / year	the next week / month / year
16.		last week / month / year	the previous week / month / year
17.		here	there
18.	Other Words	this	that
19.		these	those
20.		come	go
21.		say	tell
22.		take	bring

II. RULES TO CHANGE DIRECT INTO INDIRECT SPEECH

1. Remove the quotation marks.
2. Use a reporting verb (said, told, asked, replied, etc.).
3. Use 'that' after the reporting verb. (In questions and orders, 'that' is optional.)
4. Change the tense of the verb as per the rules.
5. Change the pronouns as per the rules.
6. Change the time and place expressions as per the rules.
7. Change 'say to' / 'said to' into 'tell'. (say to me → told me)
8. Change the necessary words as per the context.

III. EXAMPLES

	Direct Speech	Reporting Verb	Indirect Speech
1.	Rohan said, "I like cricket."	Rohan said	Rohan said that he liked cricket.
2.	She said, "We are going to market."	She said	She said that they were going to market.
3.	Mother said to me, "Do your homework."	Mother said to me	Mother told me to do my homework.
4.	He said, "I have finished my work."	He said	He said that he had finished his work.
5.	Teacher said, "The sun rises in the east."	Teacher said	Teacher said that the sun rises in the east.
6.	Meena said to her friend, "Please help me."	Meena said to her friend	Meena asked her friend to help her.
7.	She said, "Where are you going?"	She asked	She asked where I was going.
8.	He said, "Don't waste your time."	He advised	He advised me not to waste my time.

SPECIAL CASES

- * If the reporting verb is in past tense, the tense usually changes.
- * If the reporting verb is in present or future tense, the tense usually does not change.
- * Universal truths and facts do not change.

Example : He said, "The earth goes round the sun."

He said that the earth goes round the sun.

IMPORTANT TIP

- In questions → Use 'if' or 'whether'.
Example : She asked, "Are you coming?"
She asked if I was coming.
- In commands/request → Use 'to + verb'.
Example : He said, "Be quiet."
He told me to be quiet.

15. CONDITIONAL SENTENCES

Definition : Conditional sentences express a condition and its possible result.

Use : They are used to talk about situations that may or may not happen in the present, future or past.

KEY POINTS

- ♦ A conditional sentence has two parts :
if clause (condition) + main clause (result).
- ♦ The tense of the verbs changes according to the type of condition.

Type	If Clause (Condition)	Main Clause (Result)	Use	Examples
1. Zero Conditional	If + Present Simple, Present Simple	Present Simple, Present Simple	General truths, facts, habits	♦ If you heat ice, it melts. ♦ If it rains, the ground gets wet.
2. First Conditional	If + Present Simple, will / shall + V ¹	will / shall + V ¹	Real / possible situations in future	♦ If it rains tomorrow, I will stay at home. ♦ If you study hard, you will pass.
3. Second Conditional	If + Past Simple,	would / could / might + V ¹	Unreal / unlikely situations in present or future	♦ If I had more time, I would travel. ♦ If you were a bird, you could fly.
4. Third Conditional	If + Past Perfect,	would / could / might have + V ³	Unreal situations in the past	♦ If I had studied, I would have passed. ♦ If she had left early, she would have caught the train.
5. Mixed Conditional	If + Past Perfect,	would / could / might + V ¹	Past condition, present result	♦ If I had known, I would help you now. ♦ If he had practiced , he would be better today.
6. Mixed Conditional	If + Past Simple,	would / could / might have + V ³	Present condition, past result	♦ If I were you, I would have apologized. ♦ If she were careful, she would not have made that mistake.

RULES TO REMEMBER

1. Use comma (,) after the if clause.
2. If clause comes first, then comma (,) is used.
3. The tense in if clause decides the type of conditional.
4. In second conditional, use 'were' with all subjects (I were, he were, we were...).
5. In third conditional, use Past Perfect in if clause and would have + V³ in main clause.
6. In mixed conditionals, the tenses in both clauses are different.

MORE EXAMPLES

1. Zero Conditional
 - ♦ If you mix red and blue, you get purple.
2. First Conditional
 - ♦ If I find your pen, I will give it to you.
3. Second Conditional
 - ♦ If we had more money, we would buy a car.
4. Third Conditional
 - ♦ If they had listened to the doctor, they would have been saved.
5. Mixed (Past → Present)
 - ♦ If I had taken your advice, I would be happy now.
6. Mixed (Present → Past)
 - ♦ If she were more patient, she wouldn't have lost her temper.

QUICK REFERENCE CHART

Type	If Clause	Main Clause	Example
Zero	If + Present Simple	Present Simple	If you touch fire, it burns.
First	If + Present Simple	will + V ¹	If you call me, I will come.
Second	If + Past Simple	would + V ¹	If I were you, I would help.
Third	If + Past Perfect	would have + V ³	If I had tried, I would have succeeded.
Mixed (Past → Present)	If + Past Perfect	would + V ¹	If I had known, I would help you now.
Mixed (Present → Past)	If + Past Simple	would have + V ³	If I were stronger, I would have won.

COMMON MISTAKES

- ✗ If I was you, I would... → If I were you, I would...
- ✗ If I will go, I will call you. → If I go, I will call you.
- ✗ If I had went, I would have... → If I had gone, I would have...
- ✗ If it rained, I would stay. → If it rains, I will stay.
- ✗ If I have money, I buy a car. → If I have money, I will buy a car.

IMPORTANT TIPS

- ✓ Think of the time of the condition to choose the correct tense.
- ✓ Unreal in Present → Second Conditional
- ✓ Real / Possible → First Conditional
- ✓ Unreal in Past → Third Conditional

16. DEGREES OF COMPARISON

Definition: Degrees of Comparison are used to compare two or more nouns / pronouns or to show the difference in their quantity, quality or number.

KEY POINTS

- ♦ We have three degrees of comparison.
- ♦ They are used for Adjectives and Adverbs.
- ♦ The three degrees are:
Positive, Comparative and Superlative.

Degree	Meaning	Adjectives	Examples
1. Positive Degree	It is the simple form of an adjective. It expresses the quality of a noun without comparing it with any other.	tall, big, small, good, bad, fast, easy, beautiful, interesting, etc.	♦ Ram is tall. ♦ This is a good book. ♦ She is talented.
2. Comparative Degree	It is used to compare two persons or things.	taller, bigger, smaller, better, worse, faster, easier, more beautiful, more interesting, etc.	♦ Ram is taller than Shyam. ♦ This book is better than that one. ♦ She is more talented than her sister.
3. Superlative Degree	It is used to compare more than two persons or things and to show the highest quality.	the tallest, the biggest, the smallest, the best, the worst, the fastest, the easiest, the most beautiful, the most interesting, etc.	♦ Ram is the tallest in the class. ♦ This is the best book I have read. ♦ She is the most talented student in our school.

I. RULES FOR FORMING DEGREES OF COMPARISON (ADJECTIVES)

Type of Adjective	Comparative Degree	Superlative Degree	Examples
1. One-syllable adjectives (e.g. tall, big, small)	Add -er	Add -est	♦ tall - taller - the tallest ♦ small - smaller - the smallest ♦ fast - faster - the fastest
2. One-syllable adjectives ending in -e (e.g. nice, large)	Add -r	Add -st	♦ nice - nicer - the nicest ♦ large - larger - the largest
3. One-syllable adjectives ending in vowel + consonant (e.g. hot, big, sad)	Double the last consonant and add -er	Double the last consonant and add -est	♦ hot - hotter - the hottest ♦ big - bigger - the biggest ♦ sad - sadder - the saddest
4. Two-syllable adjectives ending in -y (e.g. happy, busy)	Change y to i and add -er	Change y to i and add -est	♦ happy - happier - the happiest ♦ busy - busier - the busiest
5. Two-syllable adjectives (not ending in -y) (e.g. clever, simple)	Add more	Add most	♦ clever - more clever - the most clever ♦ simple - more simple - the most simple
6. Three or more syllables (e.g. beautiful, difficult)	Add more	Add most	♦ beautiful - more beautiful - the most beautiful ♦ difficult - more difficult - the most difficult

III. COMPARISON OF ADVERBS

Positive	Comparative	Superlative	Examples
early	earlier	earliest	♦ He came early. ♦ He came earlier. ♦ He came the earliest.
fast	faster	fastest	♦ She runs fast. ♦ She runs faster. ♦ She runs the fastest.
carefully	more carefully	most carefully	♦ Work carefully. ♦ Work more carefully. ♦ Work most carefully.
well	better	best	♦ He sings well. ♦ He sings better. ♦ He sings the best.

III. IRREGULAR FORMS

Positive	Comparative	Superlative	Examples
good	better	best	♦ This is a good idea. ♦ This is a better idea. ♦ This is the best idea.
bad	worse	worst	♦ It is a bad habit. ♦ It is a worse habit. ♦ It is the worst habit.
many / much	more	most	♦ I have many books. ♦ I have more books. ♦ I have the most books.
little	less	least	♦ He knows little. ♦ He knows less. ♦ He knows the least.
far	farther / further	farthest / furthest	♦ Delhi is far. ♦ Mumbai is farther. ♦ Chennai is farthest.

IV. SPECIAL CASES

- * The + comparative + of the two
Used to compare two persons or things.
Example: Rohan is the taller of the two boys.
- * As + adjective + as
Used to show equality.
Example: She is as beautiful as her sister.
- * Not as / so + adjective + as
Used to show inequality.
Example: This book is not as interesting as that one. 😊

QUICK TIPS

- ✓ Use -er / -est for short adjectives (one syllable).
- ✓ Use more / most for long adjectives (two or more syllables).
- ✓ Irregular adjectives do not follow any rule. Learn them.
- ✓ Adverbs are also compared in the same way. 😊

17. INFINITIVE & GERUND

Infinitive : The base form of the verb preceded by 'to'.

Example - to go, to eat, to study

Gerund : The -ing form of the verb used as a noun.

Example - going, eating, studying

KEY POINTS

- ♦ An infinitive always has 'to' (except after modal verbs).
- ♦ A gerund always ends with -ing and functions as a noun.
- ♦ Both can be the subject, object, complement or object of a preposition.

A. INFINITIVE (to + V')

Use	Structure	Examples
1. As a Subject	To + V' + is + ...	♦ To help others is a good habit. ♦ To learn is important.
2. As an Object	S + V + to + V' + ...	♦ She wants to join the police. ♦ I like to read books.
3. As an Object of a Verb	V + to + V' + ...	♦ He decided to go now. ♦ We hope to win.
4. After Adjectives	Adj + to + V'	♦ It is difficult to solve. ♦ She is happy to help.
5. After Nouns	Noun + to + V'	♦ I have no time to waste. ♦ He has a lot of work to do.
6. Purpose	In order to + V'	♦ Study hard in order to succeed. ♦ He ran fast to catch the bus.
7. After Certain Expressions	too...to, enough...to, so as to, etc.	♦ He is too young to drive. ♦ She studies hard so as to pass.

B. GERUND (V' + ing)

Use	Structure	Examples
1. As a Subject	V' + ing + is + ...	♦ Swimming is good exercise. ♦ Reading improves knowledge.
2. As an Object	S + V + V' + ing + ...	♦ She enjoys singing. ♦ I avoid speaking lies.
3. As an Object of a Preposition	Prep + V' + ing	♦ He is interested in painting. ♦ We are afraid of failing.
4. After Certain Verbs	enjoy, avoid, mind, finish, quit, suggest, consider, deny, practise, etc.	♦ I enjoy playing football. ♦ She suggested going early.
5. After Certain Expressions	can't help, look forward to, be used to, etc.	♦ I can't help laughing. ♦ We look forward to meeting you.
6. Possessive Case	Noun + 's + V' + ing	♦ Rohan's reading habits are good. ♦ My father's helping others inspires me.

C. VERBS FOLLOWED BY INFINITIVE OR GERUND

Verb Type	Follow Infinitive (to + V')	Follow Gerund (V' + ing)	Both Infinitive & Gerund
1. Verbs followed by Infinitive	decide, agree, want, wish, hope, plan, promise, learn, offer, choose, expect, pretend, seem, threaten, etc.	-	-
2. Verbs followed by Gerund	-	enjoy, avoid, mind, finish, quit, suggest, consider, deny, delay, practise, miss, risk, imagine, keep, stop, etc.	-
3. Verbs followed by Infinitive or Gerund (Meaning changes)	forget, remember, try, stop, regret	(same verbs)	forget, remember, try, stop, regret
♦ I forgot to send the email. (I did not send it.) ♦ I forgot sending the email. (I sent it but forgot.) ♦ Remember to lock the door. (Don't forget to do it.) ♦ Remember locking the door. (I still remember doing it.) ♦ Try to solve the problem. (Make an effort to do it.) ♦ Try solving the problem. (Experiment with it.) ♦ Stop to think before you speak. (Stop in order to think.) ♦ Stop thinking and answer the question. (Stop the activity.) ♦ Regret to inform you that... (I am sorry to inform.) ♦ Regret informing you that... (I feel sorry about informing.)

D. DIFFERENCE BETWEEN INFINITIVE & GERUND

Basis	Infinitive (to + V')	Gerund (V' + ing)
Form	to + base verb	-ing form of verb
Function	Acts like a noun, adjective or adverb	Acts like a noun
Example as Subject	To err is human.	Erring is human.
Example as Object	I want to win.	I enjoy winning.
Example after Preposition	He is ready to help.	He is ready for helping.
Example after Verb	She decided to leave.	She avoided leaving.

E. EXERCISES

Fill in the blanks using the correct form (Infinitive or Gerund) of the verbs in brackets.

- I want _____ (be) a police officer.
- She enjoys _____ (listen) to music.
- They decided _____ (go) for a walk.
- He is afraid of _____ (fail) in the exam.
- It is important _____ (study) regularly.
- We must remember _____ (respect) others.
- I look forward to _____ (meet) you.
- He promised _____ (help) me.
- Don't forget _____ (lock) the door.
- She tried _____ (solve) the puzzle.

ANSWERS

- to be
- listening
- to go
- failing
- to study
- to respect
- meeting
- to help
- to lock
- solving

QUICK TIPS

- ✓ Use Infinitive (to + V') after words that express a purpose, decision or intention.
- ✓ Use Gerund (V' + ing) after words that express likes, dislikes, habits or general activities.
- ✓ Learn common verbs followed by Infinitive or Gerund to avoid mistakes.

REMEMBER

- * Infinitive = to + V' (used to do something)
- * Gerund = V' + ing (used as a thing / activity)

18. PHRASES & CLAUSES

Definition : A Phrase is a group of words without a subject-verb combination.

A Clause is a group of words that contains a subject and a verb.

Key Points

- ✓ Phrase = No Subject + Verb
- ✓ Clause = Has Subject + Verb
- ✓ Every clause can be a sentence, but every sentence is not a clause.

I. PHRASES

A phrase is a group of related words that gives some meaningful information but does not have a subject and a verb together.

Type of Phrase	Structure	Example	Function
1. Noun Phrase	(Determiner) + Adjective + Noun	• a beautiful rose • the boy in blue	Acts as a noun
2. Pronoun Phrase	Pronoun	• someone like you • each of them	Acts as a noun
3. Verb Phrase	Verb + (Object/Complement)	• is singing • has finished the work	Acts as a verb
4. Adjective Phrase	(Adverb) + Adjective	• very happy • quite difficult	Acts as an adjective
5. Adverb Phrase	Adverb + (Others)	• in the morning • with great care	Acts as an adverb
6. Prepositional Phrase	Preposition + Noun/Pronoun	• in the garden • of your friends	Acts as noun, adjective or adverb

Examples of Phrases in Sentences

- 1. Noun Phrase : The book on the table is mine.
- 2. Pronoun Phrase : Everyone in the class was present.
- 3. Verb Phrase : She is reading a novel.
- 4. Adjective Phrase : He is extremely talented.
- 5. Adverb Phrase : We went out in the evening.
- 6. Prepositional Phrase : The keys are under the mat.

Note : A phrase does not give a complete meaning because it lacks a subject or a verb.

II. CLAUSES

A clause is a group of words that contains a subject and a verb.

A clause can express a complete thought (Independent Clause) or a part of a thought (Dependent Clause).

Type of Clause	Structure	Example	Function
1. Independent Clause (Main Clause)	Subject + Verb (Complete thought)	• She sings well.	Can stand alone as a sentence.
2. Dependent Clause (Subordinate Clause)	(Subordinating Conjunction) + Subject + Verb	• because it was raining. • although he was tired.	Cannot stand alone; depends on main clause to complete meaning.

Common Subordinating Conjunctions

- Time : when, while, before, after, until, since, as soon as, whenever, etc.
- Cause/Reason : because, since, as, for, now that, etc.
- Condition : if, unless, as long as, provided that, etc.
- Concession : although, though, even though, while, whereas, etc.
- Purpose : so that, in order that, lest, etc.
- Place : where, wherever, everywhere, etc.

III. TYPES OF CLAUSES

A. INDEPENDENT CLAUSE (MAIN CLAUSE)		B. DEPENDENT CLAUSE (SUBORDINATE CLAUSE)
It can stand alone as a complete sentence. It expresses a complete thought.		It cannot stand alone as a complete sentence. It depends on the independent clause.
Type	Example	Type	Function	Example
1. Declarative	She enjoys reading books.	1. Noun Clause	Acts as a Noun	I know that he is honest.
2. Interrogative	Do you like tea?	2. Adjective Clause	Acts as an Adjective	The boy who won the prize is my brother.
3. Imperative	Please close the door.	3. Adverb Clause	Acts as an Adverb	I will call you when I reach home.
4. Exclamatory	What a beautiful view!

IV. DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PHRASE & CLAUSE

Basis	Phrase	Clause
1. Subject + Verb	Does not contain both subject and verb.	Contains both subject and verb.
2. Completeness	Does not express a complete thought.	Expresses a complete thought (in case of main clause).
3. Use	Acts as a part of sentence.	Can be a part of a sentence or a complete sentence.
4. Example	• in the garden • very beautiful	• She is singing. • because it rained.

V. EXAMPLES IN SENTENCES

- 1. The girl with a red dress is my sister. (Noun Phrase)
- 2. He ran quickly to the bus stop. (Adverb Phrase)
- 3. The cake in the fridge is for you. (Prepositional Phrase)
- 4. She is singing a song. (Clause - Independent)
- 5. Although it was late, we waited for him. (Clause - Dependent)
- 6. I know that you are honest. (Noun Clause)
- 7. The book that you gave me is excellent. (Adjective Clause)
- 8. We will start the meeting after he arrives. (Adverb Clause)

QUICK TIPS

- ★ Look for subject and verb.
If both are present → Clause
If not → Phrase
- ★ A single clause can be a sentence.
Multiple clauses make a complex sentence.
- ★ Dependent clause always begins with a subordinating conjunction.

SUMMARY

- ✓ Phrases add meaning to a sentence but do not form a sentence.
- ✓ Clauses have a subject and a verb.
- ✓ Main clause gives the main idea.
- ✓ Subordinate clause gives additional information.

19. SUBJECT, OBJECT & COMPLEMENT

Subject : The person, place, thing or idea that performs the action in a sentence.

Object : The person, place, thing or idea that receives the action in a sentence.

Complement : The word(s) that completes the meaning of the subject, or the object in a sentence.

KEY POINTS

- ◆ Every sentence has a Subject.
- ◆ A sentence may or may not have an Object.
- ◆ A sentence may have a Complement to complete the meaning.

A. SUBJECT

- ◆ The doer of the action.
- ◆ It tells us "Who" or "What" performs the action.
- ◆ It always comes before the verb.

Examples

1. Rohan plays cricket.
(Rohan is the subject.)
2. The sun rises in the east.
(The sun is the subject.)
3. My friends are coming tomorrow.
(My friends is the subject.)
4. Honesty is the best policy.
(Honesty is the subject.)

B. OBJECT

- ◆ The receiver of the action.
- ◆ It tells us "Whom" or "What" the action is done to.
- ◆ It usually comes after the verb.
- ◆ There are two types :
1. Direct Object 2. Indirect Object

Examples

1. She reads a book.
(a book is the object.)
2. I met him yesterday.
(him is the object.)
3. He gave me a pen.
(me is Indirect Object, a pen is Direct Object.)
4. They invited us to the party.
(us is Indirect Object, to the party is Direct Object.)

C. COMPLEMENT

- ◆ The word(s) that complete the meaning of the subject or the object.
- ◆ It gives more information about the subject or the object.
- ◆ There are two types :
1. Subject Complement
2. Object Complement

Examples

1. He is a doctor.
(a doctor is the complement of subject "He".)
2. The cake is very tasty.
(very tasty is the complement of subject "The cake".)
3. We elected him class monitor.
(class monitor is the complement of object "him".)
4. She kept the room clean.
(clean is the complement of object "the room".)

I. TYPES OF COMPLEMENT

1. SUBJECT COMPLEMENT

- It follows a linking verb (is, am, are, was, were, be, being, been, seem, appear, look, feel, grow, become, turn, etc.)
- It describes or renames the subject.

Examples :

1. She is intelligent.
(intelligent is the subject complement.)
2. He looks tired.
(tired is the subject complement.)
3. They were happy.
(happy is the subject complement.)

2. OBJECT COMPLEMENT

- It follows a transitive verb and an object.
- It describes or renames the object.

Examples :

1. We made him captain.
(captain is the object complement of "him".)
2. They found the problem difficult.
(difficult is the object complement of "the problem".)
3. She painted the wall blue.
(blue is the object complement of "the wall".)

II. IDENTIFY SUBJECT, OBJECT & COMPLEMENT

No.	Sentence	Subject	Verb	Object	Complement

21. SPOTTING ERRORS / ERROR DETECTION

What is Error Detection?

Error Detection (or Spotting Errors) is a question type in which a sentence is divided into parts. One part contains an error. You have to spot the error and choose the correct option.

Key Points

- ✓ Read the sentence carefully.
- ✓ Check grammar, usage and context.
- ✓ Find the part with an error.
- ✓ Option 'No error' is correct if the sentence is error-free.

Common Areas Where Errors Occur

- ◆ Subject – Verb Agreement
- ◆ Tense
- ◆ Articles (a, an, the)
- ◆ Prepositions
- ◆ Conjunctions
- ◆ Pronouns
- ◆ Adverbs
- ◆ Comparison
- ◆ Word order
- ◆ Spelling

Common Rules

Rule	Explanation	Wrong Example	Correct Example
1. Subject – Verb Agreement	Singular subject takes singular verb. Plural subject takes plural verb.	He go to school every day.	He goes to school every day.
2. Tense Consistency	Use the same tense throughout the sentence.	I eat breakfast and then I went to office.	I eat breakfast and then I go to office.
3. Articles	Use a, an, the appropriately.	She is an honest girl.	She is an honest girl.
4. Prepositions	Use the correct preposition.	He is good in mathematics.	He is good at mathematics.
5. Conjunctions	Use the correct conjunction.	I was tired but I went to work.	I was tired, but I went to work.
